RE: JOSEPH FISCHETTI, was.,
Joseph Frischetti, Joseph
Fisher, Joseph Ferrite

PERSONAL HISTORY AND BACKGROUND

The files of the local Ration Board in Chicago reflected that JOSEPH FISCHETTI was born in May, 1910. It is reported that he probably was born at the FISCHETTI family home in Brooklyn, New York. ¹

b7C
b7D

A confidential informant, of known reliability, has stated that FISCHETTI presently resides with his brothers, CHARLES and ROCCO, both reported key figures in the alleged Crime Syndicate, at 3100 Sheridan Road, Chicago, and that during the winter seasons he probably visits his brother, CHARLES, at the latter's winter home at 6475 Allison Road, Miami, Florida. This same informant stated that although JOSEPH seems the least intelligent and the least aggressive of the three FISCHETTI brothers, he has been associated with them in gambling enterprises at such places as the Chez Paree, the old 229 Club on Wabash Avenue, the now defunct book over the Blackhawk Restaurant, and in the operation of the Liberal Loan Bank, 21 East Adams Street. It is reported that this

CRIMINAL ACTIVITIES

It was reported that during 1943 JOSEPH FISCHETTI was among the prominent hoodlums in Chicago, ⁴ and that during the same year he was connected with his brother, ROCCO, in the operation of gambling. ⁵ It is reported that a confidential informant, of unknown reliability, stated that JOSEPH FISCHETTI was in charge of the gambling at the Chez Paree Night Club during May of 1943. ⁶ Another confidential informant, of known reliability, reported that on June 15, 1946 he saw JOSEPH FISCHETTI's Cadillac in front of the River Forest, Illinois, home of ANTHONY ACCARDO, reportedly a key figure in the alleged Crime Syndicate. ⁷

It was believed by a confidential informant, of known reliability, that JOSEPH FISCHETTI was more or less a public relations contact for the FISCHETTI brothers, and that he met their friends and acquaintances, entertained them while they were in town, and secured reservations for them for hotels, entertainment and travel. ⁸ It was alleged that because of this status, the friends and associates

On September 16, 1947 the "Chicago Daily News" reported that Police Commissioner JOHN PRENDERGAST listed the 16 top hoodlums in Chicago. Although his brothers, ROCCO and CHARLES, were on this list, the name of JOSEPH FISCHETTI was not mentioned.⁹

The "Chicago American" in an article appearing on October 20, 1948 reported that the private payers of "BUGSY" SIEGEL, late hoodlum of Beverly Hills, California, reflect that SIEGEL's last extortion from his associates under threat of telling what he knew about their operations was a remittance of $300,000 through the FISCHETTI brothers.¹⁰
